WHERE EVERY MOMENT FEELS LIKE PARADISE

STUNNING ALL-INCLUSIVE RESORTS
IN THE CARIBBEAN AND MEXICO

BY SOFIA LUST

There's something about the Caribbean and Mexico that looks like an escape into another world. The azure waters, the golden sunsets, the unmistakable rhythm of tropical life — all come together to create a setting that feels both luxurious and intimate. For those who seek perfection in every detail, the following all-inclusive resorts offer not only a vacation, but also an invitation to experience paradise like never before. ▶

A Hidden Gem:

Impression Isla Mujeres by Secrets

Isla Mujeres is the kind of place that feels like it exists outside of time. Just a short catamaran ride from the bustling energy of Cancun, this tranquil island welcomes you with calm turquoise waters and a sense of peace that's hard to find elsewhere. At Impression Isla Mujeres by Secrets, luxury takes on a deeply personal meaning.

Imagine arriving at this exclusive resort where every detail — from your welcome cocktail to the panoramic views of the Caribbean — is tailored to your desires. The suites are private sanctuaries, each with its own terrace overlooking the sea, and the service is nothing short of extraordinary. Here, butlers anticipate your every need, whether it's a sunset dinner arranged on your private balcony or a morning yoga session on the beach.

From the moment you step into this secluded haven, intimacy takes center stage. Overwater spa cabanas offer treatments that blend indulgence with tranquility, all set to the soothing soundtrack of waves beneath you. Here, luxury isn't just seen — it's felt. A place where the art of being present becomes second nature, surrounded by beauty, serenity, and the ocean's embrace.

Eco-Luxury at Its Finest:

JOIA Aruba by Iberostar

Aruba is known for its breathtaking beaches, but JOIA Aruba by Iberostar brings something unique to the table: a commitment to sustainability without compromising luxury. Located on Eagle Beach, often hailed as one of the best beaches in the Caribbean, this resort feels like a love letter to nature.

The architecture embraces an eco-friendly ethos, with every suite designed to minimize its environmental footprint. But don't mistake sustainability for simplicity — these accommodations are as luxurious as they come, with Jacuzzis on every terrace and views that stretch endlessly across the Caribbean Sea.

What truly makes JOIA stand out, though, is its focus on creating meaningful connections with the local culture. Guests can join guided tours of Aruba's hidden treasures, from exploring ancient caves to learning about the island's rich history. It's a resort that reminds you that luxury isn't just about indulgence; it's about living thoughtfully and beautifully.

A couple is sitting on a modern, light-colored pool deck. The man is shirtless and wearing sunglasses, and the woman is wearing a blue bikini. They are looking at each other and smiling. In the background, there are lush tropical plants, including palm trees, and a clear blue sky. The pool deck is made of large, light-colored tiles. To the right, there is a small table with a stack of white towels. The overall atmosphere is relaxed and luxurious.

A Celebration of Culture and Design:

Impression Moxché by Secrets

Playa del Carmen's vibrant energy meets serene sophistication at Impression Moxché by Secrets, part of the Hyatt Inclusive Collection. The resort is a striking blend of contemporary design and natural beauty, with architecture that seems to flow seamlessly into the surrounding landscape.

As you explore the property, it's impossible not to be captivated by its cenote-inspired pools — a nod to the Yucatan Peninsula's natural wonders. Dining here is an experience in itself. Whether it's savoring authentic Mexican flavors at one of the gourmet restaurants or indulging in a private wine-pairing dinner, every meal feels like an event.

For travelers seeking a blend of adventure and relaxation, Moxché offers the best of both worlds. Spend your mornings kayaking along the Riviera Maya's crystalline waters and your afternoons lounging in an infinity pool that seems to merge with the horizon. And when the sun sets, the rooftop bar becomes the perfect spot to toast another unforgettable day. ▶

Swimout suite at Impression Moxche by Secrets

A Sanctuary for the Soul:

Le Blanc Spa Resort Los Cabos

On the Pacific shores of Los Cabos, where the desert meets the sea, Le Blanc Spa Resort offers a retreat that seems otherworldly. This adults-only haven is where wellness and luxury converge, creating an environment that soothes the body and soul in equal measure.

Every moment here is designed for relaxation. Start your day with a sunrise yoga session overlooking the ocean, then indulge in a hydrotherapy ritual at the resort's award-winning spa. Dining is an art form at Le Blanc, with restaurants that blend international cuisine with local flavors, each dish crafted to perfection.

What makes this resort truly special, however, is its attention to detail. From the personalized butler service to the nightly aromatherapy in your suite, every element is thoughtfully curated to ensure your stay is nothing short of extraordinary.

Vibrant and Unforgettable:

Sandals Royal Curaçao

Curaçao is a kaleidoscope of color and culture, and Sandals Royal Curaçao captures that spirit perfectly. Set on a sprawling private estate, this resort offers a luxurious gateway to one of the Caribbean's most vibrant islands.

Days at Sandals Royal Curaçao are a blend of adventure and indulgence. Borrow a complimentary MINI Cooper to explore the island's charming streets and hidden beaches, or dive into the crystal-clear waters for snorkeling and scuba adventures. Back at the resort, the two-level infinity pool is the perfect spot to unwind, with views that stretch over the endless Spanish Water.

Each of these resorts offers more than just luxury – they offer a chance to reconnect with what matters most, whether it's nature, culture or the people you love. The Caribbean and Mexico are waiting, with their shores ready to welcome you to a world of unforgettable moments.

Romance Meets Adventure:

Sandals Saint Vincent and The Grenadines

Nestled in the lush landscapes of Saint Vincent and The Grenadines, this resort feels like a world of its own. Here, romance and adventure go hand in hand, creating an experience that's as exhilarating as it is heartfelt.

The resort's overwater, two-story villas are a masterpiece of design, complete with glass floors that let you watch the marine life below and private infinity pools that seem to spill into the Caribbean. Days here are filled with possibilities: take a private catamaran to explore secluded islands, dive into some of the region's best coral reefs, or simply bask in the sun on a pristine beach.

Evenings are equally magical, with dinners under the stars and live music that sets the perfect mood. Sandals Saint Vincent and The Grenadines isn't just a resort; it's a love story waiting to be written.

MAKE IT COUNT

THE PERFECT WAY TO CELEBRATE
LIFE'S MILESTONES

Sandals South Coast, Jamaica

BY JUSTIN GIBSON

Life's milestones are sweet experiences — the spiritual equivalent of “Pass Go; Collect $200.” Celebrating them isn't just a treat; it's a right, one that you've earned by surmounting life's speedbumps, roadblocks and adversities, both big and small. The celebrations should be big, and we have a few suggestions here on how to really savor the moments in life worth treasuring. ▶

Birthdays

Birthdays are the quintessential milestone to celebrate: You successfully made it around the sun! You're a little bit older and a little bit wiser. This calls for a party — maybe somewhere thrilling and indulgent.

The Caribbean is top of mind: Ultra-luxe all-inclusive resorts are peppered across beaches from Cancun to Nassau to Negril and beyond. Spend your days alternating between ultra-serene lounging (you'll be hard-pressed to choose between the picture-perfect beach and the immaculate resort pools, complete with swim-up bars) and venturing out on an adventure you'll talk about for years to come (cenote diving, waterfall sliding, rum tasting, etc.). In the evenings, you and your crew can indulge in the gourmet offerings of your resort — there's likely an option for every craving and palate.

Graduations

For just about every graduate, the call of a gap year is an undeniable siren song. Even if your calendar can't accommodate a full year backpacking through Europe, that doesn't mean you shouldn't go at all. And just because you're backpacking doesn't mean you have to rough it in overcrowded hostels.

Enter: The luxury tour. Simply select an itinerary that suits your interests — Italy's charming chain of seaside villages known as the Cinque Terre, the fabled hike through the Sacred Valley to Machu Picchu, Ireland's rolling green countryside or the ancient citadels scattered throughout Vietnam's & Cambodia's countrysides on the way to the mystical Angkor Wat to name a few — and then just leave the nitty-gritty logistics to your tour operator. Backroads, a leader in active travel, is a stellar example of this in practice: Spend your day trekking through and discovering a whole new section of the world, and then end the day unwinding in style at an elegant hotel. Pair your forays into the local cuisine with world-class dining. As any of the many graduation cards could tell you, "Oh, the places you will go."

Honeymoons

You've just succeeded in finding your significant other. Now what? Jumpstart your shared lifetime of adventures together with a good one — specifically, an African safari.

This isn't the rough-and-tumble odyssey of yesteryear: Modern luxury safaris are an opulent affair. Look no further than the examples of Tauck or Micato Safaris — we're talking tents and lodges that would give most luxury resorts a run for their money. Goosebump-giving views out across the Serengeti as if you're standing atop Pride Rock. And, perhaps most importantly, jaunts out into the wild led by expert trackers, drivers and rangers. Be it catching a glimpse of endangered mountain gorillas in Rwanda, black rhinoceros in Ngorongoro Crater, elephants at a watering hole or lions and leopards peeking out of the brush along the way, nothing quite drives home how surreal you and your partner's place in the circle of life is than observing some of the wilder denizens you share existence with. ▶

Anniversaries

Anniversaries need to be romantic. Not because there's any external or cultural pressure for them to be, but because they intrinsically are by their very nature. You've spent X years with your significant other; every anniversary is an extra coat of polish on your wedding vows. Every year is another ring on the proverbial tree that is your life together — how could a celebration of that be anything other than romantic?

With that, how could a luxury cruise be anything other than romantic? Your days at sea are a special kind of idyllic: whether it's ultra-low-key (a couples spa day) or a flashy, exuberant experience (think Broadway shows, but at sea), there's something for everyone to get excited about. Tack on the fact that it's easy to be pampered with attentive service and plush perks (chocolate strawberries in bed for breakfast? Why not?). And on the other side of the coin, your days in port prove a chance for you and your partner to delight in discovering a charming change of scenery together. Maybe it's a bucket-list locale, or maybe it's retracing your steps and revisiting one of the first trips you took together. Ultimately, the act of cruising is a lot like marriage — each day is a delight in itself, and yet you're still looking forward to what's down the line.

Retirements

You've just concluded a storied career; you've got more than your fair share of wisdom and stories to show for it. It's time to ride off into the sunset ... literally, if you'd like.

Consider a scenic train ride. Rocky Mountaineer has built a business around luxury train travel through the Canadian Rockies; the sheer awe of watching pristine wilderness pass by the glass-dome windows on their GoldLeaf Service coaches is a meditative (if not humbling) experience.

Or consider an expedition cruise to the Galápagos Islands. Take a Zodiac to shore, where you can play Darwin and study the peculiar wildlife, from lava lizards to blue-footed boobies to giant tortoises roaming the realm like in an ultra-slow-motion Jurassic Park.

The through-line for both of these options is: What better way to cap off a career than a chance to zoom out and recognize how the little things can be the catalyst for a big change further down the timeline? Literal mountains of time have shaped the Earth as we know it, with everything that's ever been having played a part in the process. Your job may be over, but its impact will live on, in one butterfly's wing flap or another, for centuries to come.

Our travel agents are exceptional at making every milestone extra special: we can create incredible travel experiences with our partners (in this magazine and beyond) thanks to a cornucopia of hard-earned insights, wisdom and exclusive perks.

The middle ground shows a town with red-tiled roofs and a prominent blue church tower. RIVER & OCEAN CRUISES

A river or ocean cruise offers more than just a voyage — it's a chance to experience the world with effortless logistics and polished luxury. Savor multi-course, Michelin-caliber meals crafted by world-renowned chefs, then retreat to a suite designed for your comfort, complete with plush linens and a private balcony where the sea breeze greets you each morning. Days are filled with unforgettable experiences: private tours of opulent palaces, snorkeling among vibrant coral reefs or sampling rare vintages in sun-drenched vineyards. Evenings unfold with sunset Champagne toasts, candlelit dinners and starlit moments that feel like pure magic.

Whether you choose the tranquil experience of a river cruise or the expansive allure of the open ocean, our agency can help you make the most of your vacation. Savor Epicurean Cuisine

Reservations make a big difference at Ristorante da Ivo in Venice as numerous people are turned away at the entrance. A special canalside location offers a private water taxi entrance.

Choose from grilled meats, flavorful pastas or a Venetian specialty, cuttlefish risotto. Dishes are prepared in the kitchen then finished tableside by a team of finely dressed waiters. Bypass the tiramisu and cake on the dessert menu for the Lemon Sgroppino, a sorbet cocktail composed of prosecco and Calvados.

Rome's Da Fortunato al Pantheon is known for traditional pasta recipes, particularly carbonara and cacio e pepe. The restaurant's central location near the Pantheon allows visitors to check off an attraction en route to dinner. Start with fried zucchini flowers accented with mozzarella and anchovies then move on to beef carpaccio served with burrata cheese and fresh black truffle. Elegant entrees include a grilled Florentine T-bone steak and whole seabass baked in a sea salt crust. Finish with Sicilian cassata, a sponge cake decorated with green marzipan and candied orange.

La Dolce Vita

Indulge yourself with a magical stay at an esteemed resort or iconic hotel to mark a special anniversary or milestone birthday. The five-star Gritti Palace in Venice welcomes guests arriving via water taxi onto their private dock. Have your travel agency inform the concierge about your celebration and you may be greeted with a beautiful arrangement of red roses and a bottle of Champagne on ice in your room. Breakfast on the terrace each morning is served with a captivating backdrop: a non-stop parade of gondolas and boats making their way along the Grand Canal.

Spend a few moments examining the extravagant décor of this 15th-century palazzo and former private residence to the Doge of Venice, Andrea Gritti, before taking a brief vaporetto trip across the canal to the Peggy Guggenheim Museum. ▶

Cultural Treasures

Today's inhabitants of the port city of Cagliari on the island of Sardinia invite visitors uphill to explore the high ground, in contrast to the inhospitable greeting that seafaring invaders once faced centuries ago in this heavily guarded citadel. Reaching key sites from the seaside boardwalk means a brief bus or taxi ride or meandering climb up cobblestone pathways. The longer route up the ascending pedestrian path is lined with cozy bistros, ancient churches, gelato shops, fashion boutiques and residential apartments.

At the Piazza Palazzo, the 14th-century City Hall and similarly aged Cathedral of Santa Maria share the square. Each are worthy of further investigation before continuing along to see the formidable twin towers. The Towers of San Pancrazio and the Elephant were built in the early 1300s to block intruders. Elephant Tower is marked with a lifelike pachyderm sculpture above a menacing spiked gate that still stands guard. The final ascent to the Bastione di Saint Remy, an imposing limestone fortification, is rewarded with mesmerizing views of the blue Mediterranean Sea as far as the eye can see.

FIVE FANTASTIC BOOKS SET IN ITALY:

1 "The City of Fallen Angels"
by John Berendt

After a fire destroys a renowned opera house, Berendt sifts through official investigations, Mafia connections and gossipy accounts from Venetian families with lineages that go back centuries to get to the truth.

2 "The Marriage Portrait"
by Maggie O'Farrell

This reimagined depiction of the life of Duchess Lucrezia de' Medici takes readers into 1550s Florence. Rich with palace intrigue, including a live Bengal tigress, this novel immerses readers in the cradle of the Renaissance.

3 "A Place in the World"
by Frances Mayes

She first enchanted us with "Under the Tuscan Sun" and now the author who inspired hundreds to track down her muse, Villa Bramasole, examines what "home" truly means. Mayes shares stories and recipes in an evocative remembrance of her best days in Italy.

4 "Leonardo da Vinci"
by Walter Issacson

Issacson's meticulous narrative of da Vinci's scientific and artistic pursuits brings his world to life in vivid detail. Notes, sketches and drawings from the creative genius responsible for the Mona Lisa and the Last Supper illustrate the tome.

5 "The Villa"
by Rachel Hawkins

Orvieto, north of Rome, is the setting for this tense, modern-day thriller with two overlapping storylines. Untangle this puzzling whodunnit while relaxing poolside and make life imitate art.
